EVENTS OF INTEREST
— A reminder: for the most current listing of upcoming career presentations, lectures, panel discussions and workshops (all mostly happening virtually these days) of interest to the SCS community, visit SCS EVENTS.

TO KNOW
— SCS is an Academic Sponsor of the virtual Grace Hopper Celebration, happening now through Friday. The conference is the world's largest gathering of women technologists with attendance of 39,000. Later this year SCS will also participate in the Grace Hopper Celebration's Career Fair.

— INTERSECT@CMU COVID-19: Learning Into Action continues its exploration of the impact of COVID-19 on the future of business, technology and humanity and considers the pandemic's long-term global effects on health, sustainability, the economy and education. Register for sessions to be held on October 2.

NEXT WEEK
— SCS's Center for Informed Democracy and Social-cybersecurity (IDeaS) and the Block Center for Technology and Society will co-present Combatting Disinformation One Month Before the Election: What State and Local Policy Makers Can Do with panelists Kathleen Carley (ISR) and Yonatan Bisk (LTI) on Tuesday, October 6, 12 – 1:30 p.m. Learn more and register to attend via the link above.

LOOKING AHEAD
— University Libraries will present Artificial Intelligence for Data Discovery and Reuse (AIDR) and Open Science Symposium as a joint conference event on October 19 and 20. AIDR aims to find innovative solutions to accelerate the dissemination and reuse of scientific data in the data revolution using the power of AI. Open Science Symposium builds awareness and support for the adoption of open research practices and encourages innovative ideas about data sharing. Register to attend one or both of these conferences.

Until Friday,

All of us share A Tartan's Responsibility and as members of the CMU community we must do our part to prevent the spread of COVID-19. If you plan to come to campus, you must complete the CMU Self-Assessment Survey. Even if you're not coming to campus, CMU Community Health & Well-Being strongly encourages daily completion of the survey.
